The Secretary of the Public Works Department
Madras
India

Sir,

Having made application to the Director General of Stores at the India Office Whitehall for permission to bring our Steam and other Pumps under the notice of the various departments connected with the India Office, he writes us that we are at liberty to send any information on to you.

We have therefore much pleasure in sending herewith a bound copy of our catalogues to which we would ask your special attention, and we may inform you that we are continually supplying Engines, Pumps and Pumping Machinery generally for the various States Railways of India, for the Natal Government, for the Railways in South Australia, and other Governmental Departments.

We trust therefore that after examination of our catalogue you will find therein such things as may be useful to your department, and we shall be happy to give all attention to any commands you may place with us through the Home Office.

We are Sir,

Yours respectfully

Hayward Tyler & Co
