Simla the 8th October 1890.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. 2126 W. dated the 16th August 1890, referring for orders the question regarding the retirement of certain clerks and draftsmen on the abolition of the Madras Presidency Division, I am directed to state that the orders of the Madras Government, No. 279 W. dated the 28th January 1890, permitting the men to retire on compensation pension under the rules relating to abolition of appointment was out of order in the first instance, and that the Examiner's objection in his note No. 1027 dated the 23rd May 1890, that the men could not be retired under the rules applicable to compensation pension in the Civil service regulations should not have been overruled by the subsequent order No. 1084 W dated 7th June 1890. It will now be

The Govt of Ontario take a different view of the case to this Govt, but I do not think it has been shewn that this Govt was "out of order" in considering that the appointments of the clerks had been abolished. The Divisions were abolished so far as the Northern Govt has concerned, & though they were re-constituted as Mil'y Works Divisions, the appointments of the Clerks, being Provincial, closely went with the divisions, and the men apparently were entitled to compensation pensions, their offices being abolished

It would also seem desirable to draw attention to the fact that the letter of the Govt. of India is signed by an Under Secretary, in this Presidency it is the invariable rule, based upon obvious reasons, that an order expressing sense of disapproval should be signed by the Secretary himself, and the same principle would seem to be applicable in this case.

It is now reported that clerk Veerarayhavalu & draftsman Tiruvengadam have not yet been relieved of their appts. in the Military Works Dept., & that they are still unwilling to serve in that Dept.

The S. E. V Circle proposes to absorb the clerk at once in a vacancy in the South Arcot division, but notes that there is no vacancy just now for the draftsman.
