Sir,

I have the honor to bring to your notice that the Sub division officer at Nilgiris reports that the establishments of various departments, who occupy Government quarters during their stay at Ootacammund, do not report their dates of arrival and departure to this department, and consequently there is a difficulty in making correct charge of rents due by the individuals. I therefore request that you will be good enough to instruct your establishment

establishment, in future, to give their names and correct dates of arrival and departure whenever they occupy the buildings and also to hand over correctly when they leave Ootacamund any articles or furniture that are given to them by this department.

I have the honor to be
