Copy of letter from the Reverend D. W. Hird, Chaplain of Coimbatore, to the Venerable J. F. Browne B. D, Archdeacon of Madras - dated 19th August 1890.

I have the honor to enclose copies of letters which have passed between the President of the Municipality and myself on what is known as the All Souls School, Coimbatore.

2. I notice that Mr. Ireis has some correspondence with the Government on this subject.

3. I am not yet prepared to say whether the Church of England School should be resuscitated here. This certainly cannot be done until the building is put into thorough repair.

4. Apart however from this, the building will very soon become an utter ruin, beyond all possibility of repair, or of utility, unless the Trustees does something to it.

5. Also it is apparently a local nuisance, because no one is officially in charge of it, and there are no funds for looking to it.

Copy of letter from the Revd D. W. Hidd, Chaplain of Coimbatore to the President, Coimbatore Municipality, dt 18-8-90.

In reference to your other notice in duplicate dated August-5- and received this morning — asserting that certain premises are in the "charge" of the Reverend D. W. Hidd and calling upon him to have them "cleared" &c.

2. I have the honor to inform you that the Reverend D. W. Hidd is not in "charge" of any premises in Coimbatore.

3- In his official capacity, the Chaplain of Coimbatore is, as such, in charge only of the Church of All Souls with its premises and of the General Cemetery.

4- The property to which you refer is the property of H. Mb. Secretary of State for India in trust for certain specific purposes.

5- I am not aware that the charge of this property has at any time been delegated to me, either in my private or in my official capacity

6 I therefore decline to be held responsible

responsible for the condition of the property -

7. If I may venture to offer a suggestion, it would be that you should serve this notice on the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.

8. There can be no real urgency in this matter; for, although you would allow only three days for the necessary work to be done it took thirteen days to serve the notice -
