PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (Land Revenue), dated 28th November 1890,
No. 7609 in the following letter from J. W. Fawcett Esq.
Coll^r of Trichinopoly, 27th November 1890, No. 480.

I have the honor to report for the information of the Board, that I have arranged to accommodate the Local Fund Engineer and his office in my new office at the Artillery barracks, in addition to the offices of the District Forest Officer, Superintendent of Police, Assistant Collector and Head Quarter Deputy Collector, as his being close at hand will facilitate the despatch of business. I presume there is no objection.

Resolution.

Recorded: the Board sees no objection to the arrangement, provided the space can be easily spared.
