OFFICE NOTE No. 636.

To

W.

With reference to Government of India circular No. I P.W. dated 7th. January 1890, printed with G.O. No. 172 W. dated 21st. January 1890, intimating that the permission in the code, chapter X, 32 (Madras Code para 1618) to make cheques in certain cases payable " to bearer ", does not limit the discretion of the disburser to make such cheques payable " to order ", I beg that Government may be asked to decide, after reference to the Government of India, if necessary, whether the ruling is intended to apply also to " persons in Government employ", or only to outsiders.

2. If the former is the case, the words " except in cases where they are issued to persons not in Government employ" in para 1618 of the code apparently become meaningless, and should be expunged when codifying the present ruling. I do not myself think, that the ruling is intended to be quite so general. It seems to me that the whole of para 2 of the Government of India resolution refers solely to those "certain cases" (mentioned in the first line of the resolution) in which existing code rules already allow cheques to be made payable to bearer; but there is room for doubt, and it seems desirable that the intention should be made clear.
