OFFICE NOTE No. 1073.

To W.

Under Circular No. 6 of 1886 from the Accountant General P. W. Department, which is based on the orders of the Government of India, I am required to report directly to that Government the dates on which officers of the Engineer Establishment on the Railway or Local Administration lists, temporarily transferred to this presidency, make over or receive charge of their duties when proceeding on or returning from furlough.

2. This rule is supposed to be embodied in Madras Code (para 6 but my attention having been drawn to it lately in connection with the case of Mr. Montross an Assistant Engineer posted to the East Coast Railway, I find that the rule is not correctly stated and I therefore submit for the approval of Government a draft Standing Order modifying the code rule in terms of
