GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT.

Furlough and Leave—Non-Commissioned Officers.

Read the following paper:—

No. 201. From Major-Genl. E. H. H. COLLEN, C.I.E., Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Adjutant-General in India; dated Fort William, the 16th January 1890, No. 127-A.

Furlough and Leave—Non-Commissioned Officers.

With reference to paras. 7 and 4 of the Secretary of State's despatches forwarded to you with Military Department communications noted on the margin, commenting on the rapid increase in the number of Non-Commissioned Officers

No. 1344-A, dated 15th June 1888.
" 2413-C " 11th December 1889.
allowed to proceed on furlough to England on private affairs and the extra expenditure incurred during 1889 for passages, which is attributed in a great measure to the too liberal grant of these furloughs, I am directed to request that, under the orders of the Commander-in-Chief, recommendations for the grant of the indulgence may in future be restricted to special and exceptional cases, as contemplated in Military Department Nos. 1301 and 1528-A, dated the 4th November 1884 and 19th October 1887, respectively.

Copy of a letter from the Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Adjutant-General in India; dated Fort William, the 4th November 1884, No. 1301-A (Furlough and Leave—Non-Commissioned Officers).

Having laid before the Governor-General in Council your letter No. 4286-C (Leave—Soldiers), dated the 24th September 1884, I am directed, in reply, to say, for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, that the despatch from the Secretary of State for India, No. 191, para. 7, clause 3, dated the 10th July 1884, does not authorise the grant of furlough to Non-Commissioned Officers, but merely refers to cases in which furlough is granted by the Government of India, Madras or Bombay.

2. Furlough is granted in very special cases to Schoolmasters and Schoolmistresses, and there have been a few instances in which it has been allowed to other Non-Commissioned Officers; but there is no actual rule under which furlough on private affairs can be given in such cases, although it has always been open to the Commander-in-Chief to make a special application to Government for the grant of furlough on private affairs to Non-Commissioned Officers of the British service in exceptional cases.

3. Under the circumstances, the Governor-General in Council regrets to be unable to accede to the recommendation of the Commander-in-Chief for the revision of Para. 215, Section 13, Bengal Army Regulations, so as to show that furlough on private affairs may be granted to Non-Commissioned Officers.

No. 127-A.

Copy forwarded to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Military Department, for the information of His Excellency the Governor in Council.
