8TH MARCH 1890, No. 763 W., PUBLIC WORKS.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Military Works.
Account:

READ—the following paper:—

Extract from the Proceedings of the Government of India in the Military Department, under date Fort William, the 21st February 1890, No. 508 M.W.

(Distribution of outlay on petty military works and repairs by heads of service.)

Read—Para. 491 of the report by the Committee on Public Works Accounts—

“ 491. Much labour is involved by the distribution of the outlay on petty military works by heads of service. It is a question whether this is of any real use to Government.”

Resolution.—The Government of India accept the view that it is not necessary to distribute the outlay on petty military works and repairs by heads of service. Allotments may be made for the total estimated expenditure on such works and repairs, and the outlay be recorded in the monthly and annual accounts and in the Examiner's books under a distinct head “Petty works (or repairs) costing less than Rs. 200 each.”

The Governments of Madras, Bombay, Bengal, the North-Western Provinces and Oudh and the Punjab.
