PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read again by G. dated 13th February 1890, No. 274, declining to direct any change to be made or to undertake the construction of ^{Public Mortuaries for} the City of Madras. —

Read also the following paper

From the Surgeon General with the Government of Madras, dated 10th March 1890, No. 214.

3. I have therefore to recommend that if bodies in the custody of the Police must be brought to the General Hospital, a distinct room be erected for their reception as an upper story over the present mortuary.

Order 1st April 1890 No. 622

The Government does not consider that sufficient cause has been shown to modify its order of 13th February 1890, No. 274, but the Surgeon General will submit an estimate for adding an upper story to the present mortuary for

for the reception of bodies in the custody of the Police.
