Sir

With reference to your No 1015 of 26 Instant I beg to state that my wife after delivery of child in December last did not enjoy good health for few days. Consequently, I did not apply for passes before the middle of January 1890. As it takes too long for a letter to reach Madanapally in Cuddapah District I request you will kindly grant me extension for two months or to end of May/90 to enable my family and children to get to this place.

I beg to remain
Sir
Your most obedient Servant.
Illegible
Accountant.
