MR. H. W. BLISS.

Read—the following letter from W. A. WILLOCK, Esq., Acting Collector of Vizagapatam, to the Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue, dated Vizagapatam, 4th February 1890, No. 381:—

I have the honor to forward the plans and estimates noted in the margin received from the Superintending Engineer, I Circle, for the construction of a Deputy Tahsildar's cutcherry and sub-jail at Gajapatinagaram, and to request that the sanction of Government may be obtained.

1 plan of cutcherry.	1 estimate abstract
1 plan of out-houses.	general.
1 site-plan.	1 specification.
1 estimate abstract.	1 report.

The estimate amounts to Rs. 8,800. A copy of the Superintending Engineer's letter is enclosed.

2. The present building at Gajapatinagar is a very old one, quite unsuited for the requirements of the day and in a most dilapidated state.
