Note for the Honble Member.

Mr. C. J. Peters, Executive Engineer 1st Grade, officiated as Superintending Engineer, III Circle, from May 1887 to September 1887.

The work on the Bridges at Cuddalore is progressing favourably and being readily accessible by rail. can be supervised by Mr. Peters without difficulty.

In these circumstances only that can be recommended to act. Col. Boulton without interfering with the progress of work in other Circles is Major Smart

To

Lieut. Colonel S.C. Clarke R.E.

Sir,

With reference to the notification in the South-Gazette N<sup>o</sup> 631 of 18th March 1890, I am directed by H.E. the Governor in Council to inform you that your acting appointment as Superintending Engineer, Nile, is not to be regarded as giving you any claim to an appointment as Superintending Engineer on the occurrence of a further vacancy.
