The local purchase of the corrugated iron having already been arranged, the application is entertained as a special case.

2. It is stated that the arrangement was made prior to the receipt of G.O. but it should be reported whether it was made after the receipt of G.O. No. 74 W dy 11 January 1890. Full explanation should also be submitted as to why the orders originally quoted were not attended to in this case, by which the Govt has been put to unnecessary expense - The Ex. Engineer's letter No 4845 dy 11 March 1890 referred to by the Supdg. Engineer has not been received.
