Home Department Resolution No. $\frac{11}{426-437}$, dated the 17th March 1882.

RESOLUTION.

SECTION 2 of Regulation XXXVIII of 1793 prohibits Covenanted Civil Servants from lending money, directly or indirectly, to any proprietor or farmer of land, or dependent taluqdar or under-farmer, or raiyat or their sureties; and by Home Department Resolution of 17th March 1882, read in the preamble, this prohibition has been extended to Natives of India appointed to an office ordinarily reserved for Members of the Covenanted Civil Service under the provisions of 33 Vict., Cap. III, Section 6.

2. Instances have recently been brought to the notice of the Government of India in which uncovenanted gazetted officers of Government have lent large sums of money at various, and sometimes very high, rates of interest, to landholders of the province, and even of the district in which they are serving. It appears to the Governor General in Council very desirable that this practice should be discontinued at once. His Excellency in Council is accordingly pleased to direct that the existing rules on the subject, which apply to Covenanted Civil Servants and Members of the Statutory Civil Service, shall be extended to all uncovenanted officers in the subordinate executive and judicial services of the Government. Such officers are hereby prohibited from lending money at interest whether directly or through relatives or other agents to landholders, with or without security, within the province in which they are employed.
