OFFICE NOTE No. 1989.

To

W.

In continuation of my office note No. 1382 dated 25th. March 1890 regarding the racket court at Trichinopoly which the Superintending Engineer 6th. Circle proposes to put into order and let to the Trichinopoly Club, I beg to state that in my opinion the proposal is objectionable.

2. Even if the continued payment of the rent could be relied upon, it would probably be a very poor return on the outlay, when the cost of future repairs is taken into account; but probably no guarantee of rent, of any value, could be obtained.

3. If the racket court is not required as a military building — and as there are ^{now} no European troops at Trichinopoly it is apparently not required — the proper course seems to be to sell it or dismantle it.

Yes.
There is however no need to incur expense in dismantling it, if the Club refuses.
