EXAMINER, P. W. ACCOUNTS.

Madras, 1st April 1890.

OFFICE NOTE No. 1841.

To

E.W.

I forward herewith (in original) for your perusal, and for such action as you may think proper with reference to para 2 thereof, a letter (No.210 M.S. of 15th. March 1890) recently received by me from Mr. deWinton, at present in temporary charge of the Madras Division, Madras Military Works Command.

2. This is not the first time that Mr. deWinton has addressed me in this style, and you may perhaps remember speaking to me some time ago about a very impertinent letter that Mr. deWinton addressed to me when in charge of the Nilgiri Division and which came under your notice when Superintending Engineer 4th. Circle.

3. The explanation of the action taken by me in the matter of the credits is very simple; but it is not necessary to go into that matter now, as the present question relates to the tone & not to the substance of Mr. deWinton's returned to the Ear

vide disposal on C.No 5393/90.

letter.

4. I think you will agree with me that Mr. deWinton would not venture to address his Superintending Engineer in the style which he apparently thinks himself entitled to adopt when writing to the Examiner.
