Your office note No. 1949 C. dated 6th.
April 1891.

Please see my office note No.
2210 dated 14th April 1891 on a similar case. Pending orders of Government on the general question raised in the above office note, the telegraph charge will be passed, if Government so desire, and with or without any further certificate as Government may direct.

2. The question whether certified copies should be obtained in cases of missing telegraph vouchers might be considered if necessary, when settling the details of the suggested rules.

The Examiner
is authorised to admit the charge on receipt from the Executive Engineer of a certificate to the effect that he has personally satisfied himself that the payment has been made as recorded in the cash book.

2. Cases of missing ouchers should be very rare, and a certificate to the above effect will obviate the necessity for obtaining a certified copy
