PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE
(LAND REVENUE).

THE HON. J. GROSE.

READ—again the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (Land Revenue), dated 20th February 1891, Mis. No. 1158 :—

Read—the following letter from W. A. HAPPELL, Esq., Collector of Godávari, to the Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue, dated Cocanada, 20th November 1890, No. 571 :—

I have the honor to request that you will be so good as to furnish me with a form of indemnity bond to be taken from the heirs of certain deceased inamdars who are entitled to refunds of land revenue.

2. The Accountant-General states that application may be made to you for the form.

Resolution—dated 20th February 1891, Mis. No. 1158.

For small amounts, the procedure laid down in the Civil Account Code, chapter 2, rule 4, note 2, and in Standing Order No. 132, which practically is the same, may be adopted ; but a short form of indemnity bond to cover payments made to doubtful claimants will be of use in various ways, and the Government Solicitor will, therefore, be asked to draw one up ; what is wanted is a brief form of bond to be executed by payees of claims against Government, indemnifying Government in case the payees should prove to be wrongful claimants.

READ—the following letter from E. BARCLAY, Esq., Government Solicitor, Madras, to the Secretary to the Commissioner of Land Revenue, dated 2nd March 1891, No. 101 :—

With reference to the Proceedings of the Board, dated 20th ultimo, Mis. No. 1158, I forward, herewith, a form of bond of indemnity to be taken from the legal representatives of a deceased inamdar who claim refunds of land revenue.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.—Form of indemnity bond.

RESOLUTION—dated 17th March 1891, No. 176.

Communicated to the Collector of Godávari.

2. The Board considers that in cases where the amounts to be refunded are small and there is no doubt whatever as to the title of the claimant, the procedure prescribed in Board's Standing Order No. 132 (new edition) for payment of arrears of pension to the representative of a deceased person should be followed. Where, however, the disbursing officer considers that the title of the claimant is not altogether free from doubt, an indemnity bond in the form appended to these proceedings should be taken before the refund is made.

3. The Superintendent, Government Press, will be requested to print the form and keep a sufficient stock for supply to Collectors, who will intimate to the Superintendent the number of forms that may be required for their districts.

4. The following addition will be made to Board's Standing Order No. 203 (old edition) :—

(a) Paragraph 5.—In making refunds to the representatives of deceased persons, if the amount concerned is small, and the claim be free from doubt, the procedure prescribed in Standing Order No. 132 should be followed. Where, however, the amount to be refunded is large or where the disbursing officer considers that the title of the claimant is not free from doubt, an indemnity bond in the form given in the appendix should be taken before refund is made. It should be executed at the cost of the claimant. This rule will apply also to the payment of all other claims against Government ; and

(b) Enter the form in the appendix under Standing Order No. 203, paragraph 5.
