PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE

(Land Revenue).

The Hon. H. W. Bliss.

Read—the following letter from E. C. JOHNSON, Esq., Collector of Ganjam, to the Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue, dated Chatrapur, 10th March 1891, R.C. No. 289-Eng. :—

Paragraph 17 of revised Standing Order No. 248, as published in Board's Proceedings, No. 48, dated 27th January 1890, appears to me to admit of more than one interpretation.

2. I read the phrase "for ordinary dwelling purposes" as limiting the privilege of purchase to cases where the house is required for the personal residence of the officer concerned, as otherwise there appears no reason for the distinction drawn between dwelling-houses with land attached, and other landed property. This, however, is not an absolutely necessary meaning of the phrase, and a native subordinate of mine claims to interpret the paragraph as authorizing him to purchase a house and garden which is ordinarily occupied by a European officer and in which he has no intention of living himself.

3. I shall be obliged if you will let me know whose view is correct.

Resolution—dated 10th April 1891, No. 228.

The Board considers the Collector's interpretation of the meaning of the rule clearly correct.
