Estimates of Rs. 12,478 and Rs. 6,232 for improvements to the Resident Surgeon's and Sergeants' quarters at the —, sanctioned.

If the proposed improvements are carried out the rent of the building works out to about Rs 229 per mensem. The rent based on the value of the appointments is about Rs 62 per mensem.

There are special reasons why the building should be improved; but I think those proposed are too extensive and pace the S.M.O. that there is no absolute necessity to remove & rebuild the Sergeants' quarters.

Proposed to send this paper to W in continuation of your note of Saturday 18th.

I have ascertained from the Public Dept that a fixed salary of Rs 800 per mensem is attached to the appt. of Resident Surgeon General Hospital — The capital cost of the quarters should ~~[illegible]~~ therefore be so regulated that the rent calculated according to rules will not exceed Rs 64 per mensem.

The estimate for improvements, sent to W on Saturday, amounts to Rs 18710 —

Adding to this ~~the~~ value of the existing quarters the total amounts to Rs 34.197 –

The rent calculated on the estimate for improvements amounts to Rs 144 per mensem as shown in the previous note.

The rent of the existing quarters works out to Rs 85 per mensem Total rent Rs 229 per mensem.

20-4-91

Note

In equity the value of the Sergt. Quarters (demolishing & re-erecting) cannot be included in the estimate of the house for Resident Surgeon for purposes of arriving at the amount of rent to be paid by the latter (You cannot charge a man rent for a house he does not occupy in addition to the one he does)

Also the value of site may be omitted as the ground belongs to Govt. & is & being part of the General Hospl. premises.

The Hon. Mem. wishes the work to be gone on with at once so the estimate will be sanctioned as it stands (Rs 18710 for Resdt. Surgeon's house & & Sergt Quarters &c)

1. The accompanying plans & estimates for improvements to the Resident Surgeon's Quarters General Hospital Madras cannot apparently be sanctioned until it is ascertained whether they comply with the rules in para 985 P.W. Code (S.O. No 611 of 1889).

2. The estimate amounts to Rs 18710 including the re-erection of the Sergt. quarters. As the latter item is rendered necessary by the improvements, it must apparently form part of the estimate.

3. To this must be added the value of the existing quarters, which is not given, but which has been called for – vide Office note No 2076 C of 13 April 1891 –

4 Taking the present estimate of Rs 18,710 alone, the rent according to the rules in Code para 1041 would work out to Rs 120+ per mensem –

5 The appt. of Resident Surgeon is apparently open to a Surgeon Major or Surgeon of any standing & the average pay of the grades is Rs 536 per mensem+ – vide page 298 of last Army List. 8 per cent of this is only Rs 44 1/2 per mensem.

6 The Resident Surgeon is allowed free quarters at the Genl. Hospital but the rules (Code paras 983 & 985) do not make any exception in favour of buildings proposed to be constructed for the free occupancy of a Govt. official.

7 In Current No 4263, the Cons. Architect reports that the Quarters are vacated, & that the Surgeon Genl. wishes the improvements to be put in hand at once.

8 The papers are therefore forwarded without waiting for a reply to Office note No 2076 C, in

Sir,

I have the honor to forward for sanction plans and Estimates in connection with certain sanitary alterations to the Resident Surgeon's quarters at this hospital.

The plans seem to meet all necessary requirements, the only alteration I would suggest being that no door way should be less than 8 feet high for outer doors, and 7½ feet for inner doors, such as bathroom doors &c.

I have noted the objections which the Consulting Architect has raised, and not without good reason, in regard to the unsuitability of the site of the present quarters. I consider however that the grounds for these objections will very soon be removed as far as possible.

We are getting a new latrine built for the students elsewhere, and that will allow the present one to which the consulting architect takes exception to be done away with. The Gas-works coal-stores can also easily be shifted to a less objectionable position. The dissecting rooms, macerating rooms, and Chemical Laboratory cannot of course be interfered with, but a little extra care on the part of the Professors in charge of these buildings should reduce the smells well below anything likely to cross the hundred yards or so that intervene between these buildings and the Resident Surgeon's quarters.

The consulting architect also thinks that the change of site of the Serjeants quarters will not effect an improvement commensurate with the expense incurred thereby. I cannot agree with him on this point. Under present

circumstance the ground ventilation is utterly cut off rendering the ground floor of the Resident Surgeon's house, close, stuffy and intolerable in the hot season. The proposed alteration of the site of the Serjeants quarters will remedy this effectually. In fact I am of opinion that were the Serjeants' quarters not removed, the other alterations proposed would be of but small utility.

I have now only to request that the work be put in hand with as little delay as possible, beginning with the improvements to the Quarters themselves. It is over twelve years since these quarters were officially condemned and endless correspondence has been going on in regard to them during the last three years, and in November last Lord Connemara inspected them and directed the improvements to be put in hand at once.

OFFICE OF SURGEON GENERAL

Sir,

With reference to the Consulting Architect's letter No. 3764 of 12th March 1891 forwarded under your endorsement No. 1365 dated 14th March 1891, I have the honor to remark that while it would, no doubt, take 8 or 9 months to complete the whole work in connection with the repairs &c to the Resident Surgeon's quarters, it ought hardly to take more than two or three months to put the Resident Surgeon's own house in order. It was for this reason that I requested you in my letter No. 765 dated 14th March/91 to have the Resident Surgeon's house itself taken in hand first.

2. It will put the Resident Surgeon to very great inconvenience to be obliged to live in the very limited accommodation afforded by a couple of rooms in the officers' quarters for more than two or three months, with only a wooden partition between him and the Sick:- Sick it may be of very serious foulsmelling disease. Moreover, the Officers quarters are already much too limited in accommodation to permit of any portion of them being occupied by the Resident Surgeon for more than a very brief period. From every point of view therefore it is most desirable and necessary that the Resident Surgeon's own house, at least, should be finished with the least possible delay.

SIR,

I have the honor to inform the Surgeon General that the Resident Surgeon's Quarters have been vacated by Surgeon J Smyth, and that the Acting Resident Surgeon, Dr. Hall, who has just joined, has been provided with two rooms for his accommodation in the Officers' Quarters. This arrangement, which deprives the patients of two rooms, will cause much inconvenience, as accommodations for Officers' Quarters patients is already limited and room cannot be found for the number of Applicants therefor, which is on the increase. Estimates of Rs. 12,478 and Rs. 6,232 for improvements to the Resident Surgeon's and Sergeants' quarters at the —, sanctioned.

If the proposed improvements are carried out the rent of the building works out to about Rs 229 per mensem. The rent based on the value of the appointments is about Rs 62 per mensem. There are special reasons why the building should be improved; but I think these proposals are too extensive and agree with S.M.O. that there is no absolute necessity to remove & rebuild the Sergeants' Quarters.

Proposed to send this paper to W in continuation of your note of Saturday 18th.

I have ascertained from the Public Dept that a fixed salary of Rs 800 per mensem is attached to the appt. of Resident Surgeon General Hospital - The capital cost of the quarters should therefore be so regulated that the rent calculated according to rules will not exceed Rs 64 per mensem.

The estimate for improvements, sent to W on Saturday, amounts to Rs 18710-

Adding to this ~~the~~ value of the existing quarters the total amounts to Rs 34.197 -

The rent calculated on the estimate for improvements amounts to Rs 144 per mensem as shown in the previous Note.

The rent of the existing quarters works out to Rs 85 per mensem. Total rent Rs 229 per mensem.

Note

In equity the value of the Servt. Quarters (demolishing & re-erecting) cannot be included in the estimate of the house for Resident Surgeon for purposes of arriving at the amount of rent to be paid by the latter (You cannot charge a man rent for a house he does not occupy in addition to the one he does)

Also the value of site may be omitted as the ground belongs to Govt. & is I believe part of the General Hospl. premises.

The Hon. Mem. wishes the work to be gone on with at once so the estimate will be sanctioned as it stands (Rs 18710 for Resdt Surgeon's house & Servt Quarters &c)

1. The accompanying plans & estimates for improvements to the Resident Surgeon's Quarters General Hospital Madras cannot apparently be sanctioned until it is ascertained whether they comply with the rules in para 985 P.W. Code (S.O. No 611 of 1889).

2. The estimate amounts to Rs 18710 including the re-erection of the Servt. quarters. As the latter item is rendered necessary by the improvements, it must apparently form part of the estimate.

3. To this must be added the value of the existing quarters, which is not given, but which has been called for — vide Office note No 2076C of 13 April 1891 —

4 Taking the present estimate of Rs 18,710 alone, the rent according to the rules in Code para 1041 would work out to Rs 120+ per mensem —

5 The appt. of Resident Surgeon is apparently open to a Surgeon Major or Surgeon of any standing & the average pay of the grades is Rs 536+ per mensem — vide page 298 of last Army List. 8 per cent of this is only Rs 44 1/2 per mensem.

6 The Resident Surgeon is allowed free quarters at the Genl. Hospital but the rules (Code paras 983 & 985) do not make any exception in favour of buildings proposed to be constructed for the free occupancy of a Govt. official.

7 In Current No 4263, the Cons. Architect reports that the quarters are wretched, & that the Surgeon Genl. wishes the improvements to be put in hand at once.

8 The papers are therefore forwarded without waiting for a reply to Office note No 2076C., in

The value of the quarters as they now stand, referred to in para 2 above, has since been received. It amounts, including site, to Rs 15,487, and the rental on this sum comes to Rs 85 per mensem. The total rental after the improvements are carried out would be Rs 85 + 144 = Rs 229. Taking the Resident Surgeon's salary at Rs 800, he is only entitled to quarters of the rent value of Rs 64

Sir,

I have the honor to forward for sanction plans and Estimates in connection with certain sanitary alterations to the Resident Surgeon's quarters at this hospital.

The plans seem to meet all necessary requirements, the only alteration I would suggest being that no door way should be less than 8 feet high for outer doors, and 7½ feet for inner doors, such as bathroom doors &c.

I have noted the objections which the Consulting Architect has raised, and not without good reason, in regard to the unsuitability of the site of the present quarters. I consider however that the grounds for these objections will very soon be removed as far as possible.

We are getting a new latrine built for the students elsewhere, and that will allow the present one to which the consulting – architect takes exception to be done away with – The Gas-works coal-stores can also easily be shifted to a less objectionable position. The dissecting rooms, macerating rooms, and Chemical Laboratory cannot of course be interfered with, but a little extra care on the part of the Professors in charge of these buildings should reduce the smells well below any thing likely to cross the hundred yards or so that intervene between these buildings and the Resident Surgeon's quarters.

The consulting architect also – thinks that the change of site of the serjeants quarters will not effect an – improvement commensurate with the expense incurred thereby. I cannot agree with him on this point – Under present

circumstance the ground ventilation is utterly cut off rendering the ground floor of the Resident Surgeon's house, close, stuffy and intolerable in the hot season. The proposed alteration of the site of the Serjeants quarters will remedy this effectually: In fact I am of opinion that were the serjeants quarters not removed, the other alterations proposed would be of but small utility.

1208/6

I have now only to request that the work be put in hand with as little delay as possible, beginning with the improvements to the Quarters themselves. It is over twelve years since these quarters were officially condemned and endless correspondence has been going on in regard to them – during the last three years, and in November last Lord Connemara inspected them and directed the improvements to be put in hand at once.

Sir,

With reference to the Consulting Architect's letter No. 3764 of 12th March 1891 forwarded under your endorsement No. 1365 dated 14th March 1891, I have the honor to remark that while it would, no doubt, take 8 or 9 months to complete the whole work in connection with the repairs &c to the Resident Surgeon's quarters, it ought hardly to take more than two or three months to put the Resident Surgeon's own house in order. It was for this reason that I requested you in my letter No. 765 dated 14th March/91 to have the Resident Surgeon's house itself taken in hand first.

2. It will put the Resident Surgeon to

very great inconvenience to be obliged to live in the very limited accommodation afforded by a couple of rooms in the officers' quarters for more than two or three months, with only a wooden partition between him and the sick:- sick it may be of very serious foul smelling disease. Moreover, the officers quarters are already much too limited in accommodation to permit of any portion of them being occupied by the Resident Surgeon for more than a very brief period. From every point of view therefore it is most desirable and necessary that the Resident Surgeon's own house, at least, should be finished with the least possible delay.

SIR,

I have the honor to inform the Surgeon General that the Resident Surgeon's Quarters have been vacated by Surgeon J Smyth, and that the Acting Resident Surgeon, Dr. Hall, who has just joined, has been provided with two rooms for his accommodation in the Officers' Quarters. This arrangement, which deprives the patients of two rooms, will cause much inconvenience, as accommodations for Officers' Quarters patients is already limited and room cannot be found for the number of Applicants therefor, which is on the increase. I request therefore that Government may be moved to order the works of improving the Resident Surgeon's
