CURRENT No. 1380 K

This Excellency the Right Honorable Sir B. B. Wenlock G. C. I & Governor of Port Saint George Madras.

The humble Petition of N. Etheragaluhoody, Local Fund Officer
Guorapah & Subant Salays
Most Respectfully Sheweth

That with due deference and profound submission, Petitioner begs to lay these few lines before your honor, earnestly trusting that your honor, with your wonted sense of kindness, be pleased to cast a glance of favor on his humble Circumstances mentioned in his last petition dated 14th March 191 to His Excellency the Governor for despatch to the Secretary of State for India the above petition up to date Since Petitioner saw the reply from the Governor General of India dated 4 February 1911 No 342 G to the Madras Government. That is not soliciting the Government for any Concession such as appointment, bonus service &c for the remuneration of his special service rendered during the famine in the Malabar District in the year 1876 which was approved by his superior Chief Engineer and entered in the Circular No 1987 dated 28 May 1879 that he is entitled for an upper subordinate establishment and though his juniors enjoyed their promotion. Petitioner is unfortunately left alone without any promotion up to date.

Moreover your petitioner is not and has very little hopes of remaining in the service for a short time therefore your Petitioner in satisfaction of his long service rendered in the Government more than 28½ years and special service rendered in the late famine, prays His Excellency at least to give a title for the recognition of his special services by referring to the testimonials accompanying the above petition. If your Excellency at least favor him with an honorary title such as Rai Bahadur or any other His Excellency may deem proper usually given by the Madras Government to many others by perusing the petition dated 14 March 1911, it will not only satisfy him but also will be left behind him and to his family instead of referring the above Memorial to the Secretary of State for of His Excellency the Governor to comply with this request, the memorial to the Secretary of State for India may be sent on.

For which act of mercy your petitioners as in duty bound will
