Office note from the Examiner P.W. Accounts
No. 33 of 6th January 1891.

FOR ORDERS, whether the change may be accepted as a debit against Provincial Funds.

There is a stronger case for the Expenditure going to Imperial Railway in the case of the Coach houses than of the Quarter postbandment, as the band is now provincial. ~~but~~ change to Imperial rail?

To W.

The charges on account of repairs to the quarters occupied by the bandmen of His Excellency the Governor's band were debited to Imperial Military. As regards the coach house the expenditure is not traceable in the registers of my office. Probably the works were carried out by the Barrack Master.
