GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

Proceedings of the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department
(Accounts and Finance—Bills and Remittances), dated Simla, 9th May 1891,
No. 1935.

Read again—

Resolution in this department, No. 1126, dated 8th March 1890.

Resolution.—With the Resolution of 8th March 1890, two Schedules, A and B, were published showing the cases in which the privilege of remitting money by means of remittance transfer receipts should be allowed.

2. In paragraph 6 of the Resolution, it was stated that the lists then published were not final, and that it was possible that in a few cases retained in these schedules the privilege might be eventually withdrawn.

3. The Government of India has recently had occasion to examine the lists in Schedules A and B attached to the Resolution, and to consider whether some curtailment or re-arrangement of the entries is not desirable, and whether the privilege of making remittances through the public treasuries should be allowed to continue without further restriction in certain cases included in Schedule B.

4. Special facilities now exist for remitting money through Banks and through the Post Office, so that circumstances have to a great extent changed since the practice of granting remittance transfer receipts for private purposes was introduced. In the opinion of the Government of India, therefore, the privilege can, in certain cases, be altogether withdrawn, and in others restricted, without causing undue inconvenience.

5. The number of entries in Schedule B is susceptible of reduction. Entry (1) is sufficiently covered by entry (7) as regards Military officers and by entry (2) as regards Chaplains, so that a separate entry for officers at Port Blair is unnecessary. Entry (4) is also sufficiently provided for by entry (7) and need not be retained. As regards entry (6), there now exist special facilities for remittance by private means from Simla to most of the principal stations to which it would be necessary for the officers whose cases are provided for by the entry to remit money. The entry is accordingly removed from the schedule. It does not appear necessary to retain entry (2) as a separate item in the schedule; it may be amalgamated with entry (7).

His Excellency the Governor-General in Council accordingly directs that Schedule B shall be revised as under:—

SCHEDULE B.

List of cases in which the privilege of Remittance by Transfer Receipt will be continued only when the sum remitted exceeds Rs. 150.

Reference to Civil Account Code.			Particulars.
Chapter.	Paragraph.	Clause.
(1)	8	11	To Military officers in Military employ, and to Chaplains in part or in full of their pay, and at the time that pay is drawn, at a premium of annas eight for every Rs. 100 or fraction thereof, and subject to the restriction that no remittance transfer receipts shall be drawn by one Presidency town upon another, or by any treasury in the annexed list upon any other treasury in the same column of the list. For Chaplains, moreover, no remittance transfer receipts can be drawn upon a treasury in another Presidency. [Note.—In the case of Military officers, the cash must be tendered with a certificate from the Circle Paymaster, or the Commanding officer of a Battery, or a Native Regiment, to the effect that the amount forms a portion of the applicant's pay and allowances and that he is entitled to a privilege transfer receipt.]

			To Regiments or Committees of officers for mess or regimental purposes By the Naini Tal Treasury to remit the revenue balances of the Rohilkhand-Kumaon Railway to Calcutta. To the Political Superintendent, Savantvadi, for purposes of the State by the Ratnagiri treasury.

6. The case of Military officers, Chaplains, and Medical officers provided for by entry (18) of Schedule A published with the Resolution of March 1890 will be governed by entry (1) of Schedule B as now revised; and the case of men in the Army included in the same entry will be sufficiently met by entries (22) and (23) of Schedule A, as amended below. Entry (18) of Schedule A is accordingly cancelled, and entries (22) and (23) amended as follows:—

Reference to Civil Account Code.			Particulars.
Chapter.	Paragraph.	Clause.
(22)	8	(a)	To Military officers without payment of cash— (1) in the case of British regiments of Infantry and Cavalry, and batteries of Royal Artillery in part of any of the regimental Paymaster's cheques for the private remittances of men to the extent of monthly pay and allowances, and for public purposes; (2) to Officers Commanding Native corps for public purposes in part of any of the regimental cheques, and for private remittances of Native officers and men to the extent of monthly pay and allowances, in part payment of the first cheques only drawn in each month.
(23)	8	(b)
