Sir,

While returning India's Letter No. 94^L dated 10th April 1891, received with your letter No. 146 P.W.S. of 24th April 1891, I have the honor to state that the Linseed oil and Turpentine, have been indented as usual on the Secretary of State, as they have hitherto been obtained from England; for the oil &c. so received have been found superior and cheaper than what could be had from the Local Market at Madras, the rates of Firms referred to in the India Code I was not aware of. The instructions of the India Code Volume I Appendix Page C.D. xxi will be attended to for the future regarding the purchase of Articles in the India Market and, I have the honor to request you will obtain a revised list (as this list was made in 1885) for information in this office

I have &c &c
