Entering the Government in P.W. D as draftsman and instructor in September 1862, Petitioner remained in that Post up to March 1875 Petitioner was transferred and promoted as Deputy Overseer 1st Grade in P.W. D, again transferred to the Local Fund Board in the year 1880 through the Exigencies of the Public Service and not of Petitioner own accord. Petitioner was then called upon to lend his service by the Collector for the famine works (1876 to 1879)

III Though Petitioner is now serving in the Local Fund Board, Petitioner has still a claim on the D.P.W as his pension is regulated by his service both in the D.P.W and Local Fund Board and therefore to all intents and purposes is a P.W Subordinate and Government Servant. 1728/✓

IV 1728/✓ Under the above explanation rule 12 clause 5 is, Petitioner submit not applicable to him

Petitioner has only 15 months to complete his service for pension and he now desires that if an honorarium cannot be granted him, at least the last concession, a title such as Rai Bahadur, be awarded him as remuneration for his arduous special service rendered during the famine in a malarious district. This honor will be enjoyed by him after his retirement from the Service. His Concession may be granted by the Government of India on a reconsideration of his case without reference to the Secretary of State, if not, Petitioner begs that a Memorial dated 14th March 1891 its enclosures to be forwarded

etc.
