Rs. 310-0-0

and the Examiner, P.W. accounts requires

Mr. Lord to pay under the rules ————— Rs. 62-8-0 Analogous 372-8-0

and he will probably require

$\frac{30}{4}$ in addition or ————— " 7-8-0

making a grand total of ————— Rs. 380-0-0

2. The Charge is heavy and if, as has been suggested in the joint report of the Chief Engineer and myself, the services of subordinate officers be transferred to the Sanitary Engineer's department instead of to the Municipalities a saving of Rs 62-8-0 and probably Rs 70 per month would in this instance result.

Order dated 2nd July 1891 No 1006 M. Mis

The Sanitary Engineer's query in para 1 of his letter read above will be answered in the negative.

2. The allowances proposed in the present case are sanctioned, with the exception of the last item of Rs 7½. The pensionary contribution of Rs 62½ referred to, must also be paid by the Municipality, and the general question of adjusting such charges will depend upon the decision arrived at with regard to the question of recruiting the Sanitary Engineer's staff.
