Sir, In forwarding herewith an application for the reduction of rent for the old military place of arms at Salem occupied by Mr. Hill, Inspector of Police, I have the honor to request you will be good enough to obtain early sanction of Government to the same. Rupees 10 per annum would be fair rent for the building.

2. Permission is requested to recover the reduced rate of rent from 1st April 1889 from the occupant as he has refused to pay the higher rate of rent calculated under the rules in force and represented the reasons for his objection through the Inspector General of Police who supports the
