74. It is the duty of an Executive Engineer to suggest public improvements, and to prepare detailed designs for them, as far as he may be able to do so, without permitting any interference with the prosecution of those designs or works especially ordered by superior departmental authority. He is also required to report on, and suggest measures for the protection of, any public monument, or building of architectural or historical interest, which appears likely to fall into decay, and he will be responsible for any neglect or destruction which he has failed to report. (See also Chapter XI, paragraph 6.)

75. The term "public monument, or building of architectural or historical interest," above, is intended to include all works of this class, whether public or private property. All buildings and monuments of historical or architectural interest should be carefully attended to as a matter of duty, and Executive and Superintending Engineers should keep Government fully informed as to their condition. See also Chapter III, paragraphs 74 and 75.
