4. The wound pensions of civilians can be drawn in England only when the recipients are drawing furlough pay or pension from the India Office.

5. Family pensions and gratuities in case of death in, or caused by, the service will be calculated according to the rules in Article 1431, Army Regulations, India, Vol. I, Part I, relative rank for this purpose, as for fixing the amount of wound pensions, being determined in the case of covenanted civil servants by standing in the service and in other cases by pay, and not by departmental rank, and, in the case of gratuities, the amount being that laid down for regimental, not a staff, officer. The sterling rates of pension and gratuity will be converted into rupees as in the case of military officers. The pensions will be drawn in sterling only when the recipients are domiciled in the United Kingdom or the Colonies.

6. Medals will be granted under the rules in force for the army in general.

7. Compensation for loss of baggage, &c., will be granted as occasion arises on the merits of each case.

8. A uniform will be worn by superior officers, and will be the "Army Departmental Field Service (khaki) uniform," with badges of rank on the shoulder and brass letters for the various departments:—

"Tel." for Telegraph; "Post." for Postal; "Survey" for Survey; "Rail." for Railway; "Works" for Public Works Department.

9. The rank hereby conferred will entitle the officers concerned to take their place on mixed committees with officers of the regular forces, according to date of commission, subject to the protection of Queen's Regulations, Section VI, paragraph 120, and to be saluted by the rank and file.

10. Europeans of the subordinate class will wear the ordinary field service (khaki) uniform of British infantry, with letters for each department on the shoulders as in the case of officers. Natives of the subordinate class will wear the ordinary khaki uniform of native infantry, with letters for each department as for officers; those ranking as native officers will wear the badges of rank as for native officers.

11. Officers holding commissions as volunteers will not take that rank on service, but the rank conferred by their departmental standing.
