OFFICE NOTE No. 3945.

To

W.

2010

It having been brought to the notice of the Examiner that there was a discrepancy between the rules in Appendix Z paras I5 and I8 and that in code para I744 A, I forward herewith for the approval of Government a draft standing order modifying the rules in the Appendix so as to bring them into accord with the code rule.

2. The discrepancy referred to is, that whereas code para I744 A. requires an entry to be made in the cash-book as soon as a cheque is posted to the address of the payee, the rules in the appendix forbid the entry until after the return of the voucher from the payee.

3. The Inspecting account officer also having brought to notice that there was some doubt among the divisional accountants^{as} to how recoveries made by deduction from salaries and allowances were to be dealt with, the standing order provides for showing in whose cas

book such recoveries are to be posted.
