SIR,

With reference to this Office letter N^o 2707 G. D. dated the 27th February 1890 & G. O N^o 764688 of the 3rd March 1890, I have the honor to state that the decree of the Rajahmundry District Munsiff's Court was appealed against by defendant Sivakoti Venkataswami Nayudu, & I herewith submit copies of the judgment & decree of the Appellate Court. It will be observed from these documents that the decree of the lower Court was modified on the points of freight, interest, & costs. I also forward copies of the judgment & decree of the lower Court, after a perusal of the judgment, - I do not think it advisable to prefer an appeal in the High Court. Steps will not be taken to recover from S. Venkataswami Nayudu, the sum decreed by the Appellate Court, till your orders on the subject are received.

J

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most Obedient Servant.
