SIR,

I have the honor to bring to your notice that M.R.R. A. Srinivasa Aiyangar, Rai Sahib, Assistant Engineer, in charge of the Eastern Sub Division, of the Godavari Western Division, was granted privilege leave (vide Notification in the Fort Saint George Gazette dated the 8th July 1890) & was relieved of the Sub Division charge by the Division Officer, there having been no other officer or subordinate available to take the charge of the Sub Division.

2. The Assistant Engineer handed over charge at Chettipett, the Head Quarters of the Division Officer, instead of at Nassapur the Head Quarters of the Eastern Sub Division. The Examiner of Public Works Accounts has disallowed the daily allowance to the Assistant Engineer for the two days viz 29th & 30th June 1890 on which he gave over charge away from his head quarters.

I therefore request that you will be good enough to obtain the sanction of Government authorizing the Examiner to pass the travelling allowance for the two days in question.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obediently

J. D. Wilson.
