I see in the list
of hangalows printed
with G.O. 2195 that
this hangalaw
is classed as a
"Private Hangalaw"
and any restoration
job is that it was built by a former

Collector of the District,
and handed down
to his successors.

I am almost ²⁸
sure that it was never in his charge
of the P.W. Dept.

However if this
be so, the Collector
has maintained his claim bit, and
as the Dept. now
requires it, and
the O.S. is willing to surrender it, I think that it might be taken over —

The receipts during the last 6 years do
have only been Rs 160
which shows that it is not much used
by the travelling public.

The D^t board has expended Rs 494
on its upkeep, and I am disposed to think that the other
it makes a pair
one, and that
the bungalow may be acquired by the Dept. for Rs 318-7-0

The D^t board
would still be out
of pocket to the same amount.
