of the Chingleput district a considerable number of labourers is employed on works specially started for their relief in consequence of the scarcity which prevails in the District. It is of importance that these labourers should be paid at frequent intervals; and to admit of this being done, it was found necessary to increase the imprest of the Overseer in charge to Rs 2000/ This sum is, however, the Examiner, P.W. Accounts points out beyond the limit of an ordinary imprest which under Code rule is fixed at Rs 1000/; and the sanction of the Govt. of India thus becomes necessary to the increase. I am accordingly to request that, under the circumstances, which are special and temporary, such sanction may be communicated.
