I am very hopeful if Court can sanction this -

Wm. L. Taylor
with a will, Wm.
Taylor may or may not be the heir, or one of the heirs -

If there is no will
the money belongs to the estate of the late Wm. Taylor, &
him being a child Wm. Taylor will not be entitled to the whole of it -

Mrs Taylor will doubt be liable to Executors. But
God is with us

involved in any loss - as the will doubtless leave something under the will, and will refer to the Executors any statements they may require - This payment will not be lost sight of -

If there is no will,
Mr. Taylor will still be entitled to a share in the Estate - and this share will probably be much more than the present payment.

Letter from the Executive Engineer N.I. Punjab Division
No 148 C.E. of 14. 10. 91.

Note for the Hon'ble Member.

This was done
under the instructions of the undersigned; it is known that Mr. Taylor left a will making
Mr. Taylor sole legatee, executrix, and guardian of his infant son.

Sir,

ENCLOSURE. — —

I have the honour to report that I have paid the sum of Rs 354 - 13 - 5 to Mrs H. Scott Taylor on account of pay and allowance due to the late Mr. H. S. Taylor for October. Under P. W. Code para 464, payment is not allowed to be made in such cases for sums exceeding Rs 200 in amount, but as the non-payment would in the present case have been attended with inconvenience, and as there is not the least ground for apprehension that the payment will involve Government in any difficulty, I have made it in anticipation of sanction. Other than your own personal concurrence — and

and request that you will be good enough to ask for the approval of Government as a special case. —

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

S. D. Rao.
