In the contingent bill of the Rushikulya Division for July 1891, charge of Rs.298-15-6 on account of printing forms was claimed and admitted provisionally pending countersignature of the Superintendent Government Press to the bill. The Superintendent Government Press to whom the bill was sent for countersignature states that the charges are much in excess of the usual rates allowed for printing at private presses..

2. The Executive Engineer Rushikulya Division now explains that the charges were paid to the proprietor after the bill was checked by the Dy. Collector in charge of the Collector's press Chatrapur, and forwards a copy of his (Dy. Collector's) letter No.13/Press in support (enclosed in original).

3. Will you please obtain orders of Government as to whether under the circumstances, the charge can be admitted
