of Government an estimate amounting to Rs 3070 for certain repairs necessary to the Coimbatore Jail. The present Superintendent

Mr Goodrich reports that, on taking charge of the Jail in April last, he found the buildings in bad order and requiring considerable repairs. The Executive Engineer was accordingly requested to inspect them and prepare an estimate. From the estimate now submitted, it will be observed that the greater part of the outlay involved is on account of repairs to the roofs of several of the blocks which are in bad order.

The estimate also includes a number of minor repairs to blocks, workshops &c, and some extensive renewals to the woodwork of the Treadmill, which has not been touched for some years.

I have the honor to be

Sir

Your most obedient servant

A. G. Cardew.

as Inspector General of Mills.
