P. W. I. Code.

Unpassed men having thorough practical knowledge and experience in any useful branch of engineering, may be admitted, at the discretion of the government in any grade thought suitable, without any test in theoretical knowledge, but no one will be appointed to the upper subordinate establishment who cannot render his accounts in English.

This is an unusual form. If the officers are together, they ought to be made by Minute of H.E. in Govt. initiated by members of Council. If they are not together they ought not to be made Govt.
at all.
