Trichinopoly ^{12th} Nov 1891.

J. W. Martin Esq.

Suply. Registrar of Land

35/1

Sir,

With reference to your memorandum
No. 4637C
d. 11-91, I beg to inform you that the matter stands thus. In 1888 when the land was purchased by my mother, my wife's name was, at the instance of my father, since deceased, inserted in the deed of sale, with the distinct understanding that my wife should enjoy no benefit from the land till after my death. Ever since the land remains in the enjoyment of my mother and my widowed sister, for whose benefit alone it was purchased. In February last when my wife was suffering from cholera & was not expected to live she expressed a wish to transfer her nominal share in the land, in favor of my sister and the latter on her part promised, in the event of my wife's recovery to transfer to her a small house, in exchange. But subsequently owing to some domestic unpleasantness, the family became divided and I could exercise no influence for carrying out the proposal and my ^{wife}, who is refractory, is not willing to transfer her nominal rights till something she receives in return. The land is not cultivated by my wife nor is she in any ^{other} way connected with its management beyond having a prospective claim to a benefit from it in the event of my death. Under these circumstances I fail to see how I may be deemed to have any right or interest in the land, so that an exemption from the operation of rules, prohibiting lands being held by public servants, being applied in my case. N. H. Code para 652 B, lays down a direction for furnishing information in a statement, similar to the one submitted by me; but the mere submission of the statement does not bring me under the category of public servants holding lands.

2. The land is perfectly worthless as regards its productive powers and had I the slightest right over it, I would have long ago got rid of it - but as matters stand I have nothing whatever to do with it, and the law does not give ^{me} any power to convey away the land or otherwise dispose of it, as it forms a separate property of my mother in reality & nominally of my wife, with rights of disposal. 3. Moreover my wife who is an invalid for some years, is of a nervous temperament and the protracted delay in disposing of matters involving the transfer of landed property will occasion her being moved from time to time to other places where I am absent, which will certainly seriously tell upon her already broken down constitution, and the nature of her malady does not admit of her being moved, which last, is an additional consideration that deters me, in the interest of humanity, from having recourse to any device. In these circumstances I am at a loss to know how

I will be in a position to carry out the orders in your memorandum under reply, and therefore pray earnestly that the condition on which hinges the exemption, may be cancelled, as I do hereby emphatically repudiate all circumstances of right, interest, or any other proprietary incidents connected with the land - for which I shall be thankful -

I beg to remain

Sir,

Your most obedient servt.
Andrew Lazarus,

Chk R. N. D.

Submitted to the Chief Insr.
D.P.W. for favorable orders of Govt with reference to G.O. No. 2983N 2-11-91

2. When submitting his land register, in which he stated that his wife desired to give up her share of the land at the next settlement, Mr. Lazarus ought to have explained the difficulties. Under the circumstances stated above the undersigned however sees no objection to the block's exemption from the rules.
