4TH NOVEMBER 1891, No. 1111, PENSION.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers :—

From the Collector of Madura, dated 14th March 1891, No. 549.

Certificate and report from the Accountant-General, dated Fort St. George, 23rd April 1891, No. 32—A.D.J.

Submitted to Government. It will be seen from the service history of the applicant that from the 9th January to 31st October 1878 and again from the 1st January to 30th September 1880 he was deputed on service under the Zemindar of Kannivadi as Special Revenue Inspector on a salary of Rs. 25 per mensem. His transfer to that appointment was not, however, sanctioned by Government and he did not pay the prescribed pensionary contribution, and his service in it has, therefore, been rejected as non-qualifying. Should Government, under the circumstances, be pleased to treat these interruptions as falling under exception (c), article 463 of the Civil Service Regulations, his qualifying service in superior grades will amount to 23 years, 10 months and 19 days and will entitle him to a superannuation pension not exceeding Rs. 5-12-0 per mensem. equal to $\frac{2}{3}$ of the average emoluments under articles 503 and 518 (b) of the Civil Service Regulations.

In accordance with rule 3 under article 994 (b), the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to article 514 of the Regulations.

Official Memorandum to the Accountant-General, dated 13th May 1891, No. 36.

In his certificate and report noted in the margin, the Accountant-General holds that the periods of the applicant's service in the Kannivadi zemindari from 9th January 1878 to 31st October 1878 and from 1st January 1880 to 30th September 1880 may be treated as falling under exception (c), article 463, Civil Service Regulations. But the exception quoted would apply only if the applicant's special appointments were under Government control and if he was transferred thereto by competent authority. The Accountant-General is accordingly requested to ascertain and report for the information of Government, whether these two conditions are satisfied in the present case. Attention is invited to his letter, dated 18th November 1890, No. 313—I.A.E., in which transfer to an estate under the Court of Wards was held as an interruption in service requiring condonation.

2. The Accountant-General is also requested to state whether there is any objection to the applicant's service in the zemindari being now converted into pensionable service by payment of pensionary contribution, and if there is none, to ascertain and report whether the applicant is prepared to pay up the arrears.

From S. H. WYNNE, Esq., Acting Collector of Madura, to the Accountant-General, dated 3rd July 1891, No. 1226.

In reference to your letter, No. 59—I.A.E., dated 21st May last, I have the honour to state that Sundara Sastrial Muthanna Iyer is not willing to pay the pensionary contribution for the two periods during which he held the appointment of Zemin Revenue Inspector for reasons set forth in his urzi, dated 23rd June 1891 (herewith sent with English translation), as on both occasions he was appointed only in the interests of Government to the posts under Government control by superior authority, once when the estate was attached for arrears of peishcoush and again for the purpose of selling distrained property—a duty which is vested in Government officer.

2. The fact that the applicant was allowed lien on his permanent appointment is borne out by pay bills, and he reverted to it after the temporary duties were over. Copies of the orders of the superior authority not being forthcoming, extracts from the despatch register of the Collector's office bearing on the subject are herewith sent.

Endorsement by the Accountant-General, dated 11th July 1891, No. 124—I.A.E.

Forwarded to the Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department, with reference to his memorandum, No. 36, dated 13th May 1891.

Official Memorandum to the Accountant-General, dated 27th July 1891, No. 60.

[References.—Accountant-General's certificate and report, No. 32—A.D.J., dated 23rd April 1891, and his endorsement, No. 124—I.A.E., dated 11th July 1891.]

The undersigned is directed to enquire whether the periods during which the applicant was employed on special duty in the Kannivadi zemindari cannot be reckoned as qualifying service. He was on both occasions appointed only in the interests of Government and to posts under Government control.

Ag. Under Secy. to Govt.

Endorsement by C. R. C. KIERNANDER, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, dated Fort St. George, 10th October 1891, No. 246—I.A.E.

Submitted to Government with reference to the Under Secretary's memorandum, No. 60, dated the 27th July 1891. The applicant's service for the periods referred to appears to have been paid from funds of an attached estate, and does not, therefore, count for pension under article 429 of the Civil Service Regulations.

2. The papers received with the above memorandum are herewith returned.

ORDER—dated 4th November 1891, No. 1111, Pension.

Under articles 503, 518 (b) and exception (e) to article 463 of the Civil Service Regulations (1st edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Kantramanikam Sundara Sastrial Muthanna Iyer, late Gumastah, Melur taluk, at Madura from 6th January 1891 in consideration of his qualifying superior service of 23 years, 10 months and 19 days.

2. It is observed that the applicant was employed in the Kannivadi estate from 9th January 1878 to 31st October 1878 and from 1st January 1880 to 30th September 1880. These periods have been rejected as non-qualifying, no pensionary contribution having been paid therefor. In future, Collectors should be careful to explain to men deputed for temporary duty of this kind what the consequences of accepting the employment will be unless pensionary contribution is paid.
