PARA. 569.

1. The following constitute interruptions of service and affect service for leave as noted against each :—

(a) Discharge or resignation although followed by re-employment (232).—No service prior to re-appointment counts towards subsequent leave unless especially allowed by government of India.

(b) Absence without leave, or after expiry of leave of any kind (excepting only 7 days' grace allowed after privilege leave and leave on private affairs) 240 and 261 (a) (ii).—The period of unauthorised absence does not count towards leave of any kind and if the unauthorised absence is after privilege leave (and whether in excess of the 7 days' grace or not) all previous service towards privilege leave is forfeited; but otherwise previous service towards leave of other kinds is not affected.

(c) Period of suspension for misconduct or pending inquiry (288 and 289).—The suspension (whether the officer is reinstated with full pay or not) does not affect previous service for leave other than privilege leave; but it cancels all previous service for privilege leave, unless the local government declares otherwise. The period of suspension itself will count towards leave or not according as reinstatement is or is not with full pay, provided that the above mentioned declaration by the government is necessary before such period can count for privilege leave.

(d) Excess over authorised joining time.—Unless condoned by the local government, cancels all service for privilege leave prior to date of joining; and the period of excess will not count as service towards leave of any other kind (285).

(e) Period of transit of an officer who has no substantive appointment or who resigns one appointment to take up another.—His service for privilege leave prior to joining the new appointment is forfeited, but his service towards other leave is not affected, except that the period of transit does not count as service for leave (208 and P. W. D. Code, para. 441).

2. Information on the following points is not required as they do not affect title to leave :—

(1) Transfer.

(2) Change of pay and rank due to promotion, reduction, increment, &c.

3. An officer on the temporary establishment, or an acting or officiating officer, who has no substantive appointment on the permanent establishment and no lien on any such appointment is not entitled to any leave whatever with allowances, excepting (1) leave on medical certificate for periods not exceeding 3 months in the aggregate, and (2) privilege leave, subject in both cases to the condition that the performance of his duties can be provided for without additional expense to the state (273 and 369).

4. The following references to rules on the subject of admissibility of different kinds of leave are collected for facility of reference :—

(1) Privilege leave [291, 294, 297, 298, 299 and 368].
(2) Leave on medical certificate [369 and 373 (a)].
(3) Leave on private affairs [370 and 373 (b)].
(4) Furlough [371 and 373 (b)],
(5) Leave without allowances [372].
(6) Conditions of extension or commutation [266 and 267].

N.B.—Unless otherwise expressly indicated, all references are to articles of the Civil Service Regulations.
