OFFICE NOTE No. 7246.

To

W.

Please see this office No. 7235 dated 23 November 1891 containing a report of cases of workshop jobs for private parties undertaken without prepayment in the month of September 1891.

2. A similar report is made from month to month, but there is no order of Government prescribing such a report, and I think it a waste of time to trouble Government on the subject unless there is any glaring breach of rule, or any difficulty in recovering the value of work done.

3. In the best regulated workshops unimportant instances of the kind will

Has been put up for reference. Will be disposed of after orders have been passed on the present current.

with sometimes occur, but I consider that all the requirements of the case will be met by including the items in the miscellaneous objectionable items letters in the same way that other objectionable expenditure is treated; and that reports to Government should be restricted to items of the kind mentioned in para 2 (above)

4. Unless therefore Government desires to receive these monthly reports, they will be discontinued.

I entirely agree in the above remarks -

There is no reason why a special report should be made to Government in the case of fully irregularity of this kind more than in the case of irregular procedure. They should be dealt with precisely as any other "objectionable items".

It is found that the special reports have never been submitted for Government.
