1ST DECEMBER 1891, No. 3219 W., PUBLIC WORKS.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,
PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Buildings and Roads.
Civil Works.

READ—the following papers:—

From Colonel H. SMALLEY, R.E., Superintending Engineer, III Circle, to the Chief Engineer, Public Works Department, dated Bellary, 19th October 1891, No. 1944.

The Examiner of Public Works Accounts has drawn my attention to two estimates sanctioned by the Executive Engineer, Bellary, for Rs. 120 and 48, respectively, as objectionable on the grounds that the civil cemetery at Bellary and the Roman Catholic cemetery in the Cowl Bazaar, Bellary, to which the estimates refer, are not included in the list of cemeteries to be repaired by the Public Works Department printed in G.O., No. 2362 W., dated 2nd September 1890.

2. The Examiner is certainly right in his contention according to the Government Order above quoted and I have been wrong in allowing estimates to be sanctioned for repairs on the cemeteries in question as well as for the Fort church and the Roman Catholic church, Bellary, which do not appear in the list.

3. I desire now to explain that, when I drew up the list recorded in the Government Order quoted, I thought I was bound to confine myself to purely military churches and cemeteries, whereas I see in other circles that many purely civil churches and cemeteries are entered as to be kept up by the Public Works Department.

4. The civil cemetery, Bellary, is the last resting place of many military officers and in fact was the only cemetery for the station other than the Roman Catholic cemetery. It has always been kept up by the Public Works Department. The Fort church has always been kept up by the Public Works Department and is practically more of a military church than a civil church, that is to say, at least three-fourths of the congregation belong to the army. I do not know that I need have brought in the Roman Catholic church. I have only done so to make matters quite clear in future. It is the Garrison Roman Catholic church of the cantonment and has always been kept up by the Public Works Department. As to the Roman Catholic cemetery in the Cowl Bazaar, the Public Works Department constructed the wall round it and has kept it up hitherto but nothing more. I have refused to do other work here without authority being obtained from Government through the Archbishop of Madras.

5. I request, therefore, that the following churches and cemeteries be added to the list already published to be kept up by the Public Works Department, viz.—

Churches.
Fort church, Bellary.
Roman Catholic church, Cantonment, Bellary.

Cemeteries.
Civil cemetery, Bellary.
Roman Catholic cemetery, Cowl Bazaar, Bellary.

From the Rev. W. W. ELWES, M.A., Acting Archdeacon of Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 20th November 1891, No. 868.

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of endorsement of Chief Secretary, dated 16th November 1891, on Ecclesiastical Current No. 291.

2. I have the honour to point out that, if the civil cemetery and the Fort church at Bellary be included in the list of churches and cemeteries to be repaired by the Public Works Department, the clearly defined line, which is followed in that list, will be broken.

3. The list of churches and cemeteries to be repaired by the Public Works Department, as approved in G.O., dated 17th October 1891, No. 2746 W., Public Works, includes only (1) military churches, (2) military cemeteries, (3) those churches and cemeteries which are in Madras, Bangalore and on the Nilgiris and which have been placed under the Public Works Department by various Government Orders.

4. If any churches or cemeteries, which are not military and neither in the Presidency town or Bangalore or in the Nilgiri division be placed under the Public Works Department, there will, I think, be some confusion. I respectfully suggest, therefore, that the civil cemetery and the Fort church at Bellary be not placed on the Public Works Department list.

5. I return the paper under reply.

Transferred, and the referred paper returned, to the Public Works Department.

26th November 1891.

(Signed) J. F. PRICE,
Chief Secretary.

ORDER—dated 1st December 1891, No. 3219 W., Public Works.

The Government agrees with the Acting Archdeacon and approves the omission of the civil cemetery and the Fort church at Bellary from the list of Government churches and cemeteries to be repaired by the Public Works Department.

2. Further orders will be issued in regard to the Roman Catholic churches and cemeteries to be repaired by the department.
