Sir, We are obliged to pull down our Boys' School room & use the material in repairing the roof of the building in which we hold service on Sundays & which in future will be the Boys' School room. It has to be done at once. The only building large enough for the school is the larger Bungalow belonging to the D.P.W. the rent of which is Rs 100 per mensem. This we can afford to pay as three months it would more than swallow the Government Grant. As desire the use of the bungalow

DOWLAISHWERAM, 21st November 1891.

SIR,

I have the honor to submit herewith a letter dated the 11th instant from the Rev. J. Cain at Dumaqudem and to recommend that sanction of Government may be obtained to the building therein alluded to, viz. Executive Engineer's Bungalow at Dumaqudem, being occupied rent free till the end of March next, as requested by the Rev. J. Cain. The building is now vacant.

I have the honor to be
Sir

Your most obedient servant

G. D. Wybrow.
Supg. Engineer 1st Circle for school purposes & not for private use would the Government feel able to lend us the bungalow rent free until the end of March? It would confer a great benefit and enable the school to be conducted properly, and in compliance with the Government Regulations I remain
