Copy of letter from Superintendent Mr J. R. Hendrick, to the Executive Engineer, Trincomalee division No. 347 dated 4th October 1891 329/

Sec 2. In forwarding my journal of occupation for the month of September, I beg to report, that I was compelled to make a halt of more than 10 days at the Kumarasawmy Pidai anicut works in order to collect labour and push on with the work departmentally.

2. As I had left the place, the coolies were inclined to leave the work and go down to the plains.

3. As my halt here for such a length of time was unforseen, I had to keep up my carts &c for the conveyance of my camp equipage.

4. Under the above circumstances I request you will be good enough to sanction my full allowance for days hall'd here -
