Excellency the Governor

Mr Pagson the Engineer to the Madras Harbour Board having gone on furlough it has been suggested by the Honble Mr Stokes that an officer of the Public Works Department should be employed in his place.

Mr Wilson, who will have to give up the charge of the Tinnevely Division owing to the return of Colonel Fraser from furlough has been suggested by the undersigned for the duty, which he is willing to
