Letter from Mrs Taylor, widow of the late Mr H. S. Taylor, Supt. of Works Periyar Project, dated 12th November 1891.

FOR ORDERS.

Any grant will presumably require the sanction of the Secretary of State, but the case seems one for liberal dealing.

The opinion of the undersigned as to the value of Mrs Taylor's services has been repeatedly expressed.

Mrs Taylor has one child, a boy about 2½ years old, and the property mentioned in her letter will produce at the utmost, an

It is a sad case but I am afraid it does not come under Art 782 C.S.R. and that any application to India by the S. of S. in behalf of Mrs Taylor would not have the smallest chance of success.

Art 707 & 708 appear to me to be the only articles under which India could grant a pension exceeding £100 p.a. in case of death whilst in service. But I think we might apply under Art 709 as a special case for a pension of £25 p.a. for Mrs Taylor.

FOR ORDERS.

I don't think Mrs Taylor and certain others have killed in the execution of public duties or that the case falls within any of the rules on the subject. Further we know very well that Mrs Taylor's relatives are well off & able to provide for his widow & child & therefore the application of public money for her support is not called for. Let the case be returned. HH 20 Nov.

I cannot agree that Mr. Taylor was not killed in the execution of public duties - and I think it is a case in which we should under all the circs be justified in asking India for 1000 Rs gratuity.

With reference to the Honble Mr Garstin's remarks.

2. The undersigned ventures to suggest that a special application might be made to the Secretary of State for something more than the maximum of Rs 1000 allowed by article 787 ~~1739~~ ff, or Rs 25 per month allowed by article 789 ~~1739~~.

3. Instructions are further solicited as to whether the matter can be disposed disposed of at once or should await the return of His Excellency the Governor.

Mrs R. Scott Taylor. 19/11

Ordered that the application be forwarded to the Govt. of India.

H.E. No. 3468 dy 28th Decr. 1891

To

The Secretary to the Govt. of India
P.W. Dept.

Sir,

I am directed to forward for the consideration of the Govt. of India the accompanying application from Mrs R. Scott Taylor for a pension or gratuity in consideration of the circumstances of the death of her late husband who was Superintendent of Works in charge of the No: 1 Perigan Project Division.

2. The circumstances are fully detailed in the Proceedings of Govt: of the 30th October 1891, No 2910 W, a copy of which is attached for reference - It will be observed that the said occurrence took place in the morning of the 12th October last while Mr. Taylor was in the execution of his public duties, and that the death was of an extremely awful and sudden character -

Mr. Taylor's services in connection with the Perigan Project have, moreover, been eminently valuable, and were, in the opinion of His Excellency the Governor in Council such as entitle the present application of his widow to the most liberal consideration.

3. His Excellency in Council does not recommend the grant of a pension, but he feels justified in asking that the Govt: of India will be pleased to sanction a gratuity of Rs 1000 under under Article 757 A of the Civil Service Regulations.
