FILE No. 1.

SERIAL No. 55.

[To be substituted for the letter bearing the same number and date.]

No. 1077—1-55 R., dated Simla, the 3rd October 1890.

From—J. W. P. MUIR-MACKENZIE, Esq., Under-Secy. to the Government of India
To—The Secretary to the Government of Madras.

IN acknowledging the receipt of your letter No. 4856 A., dated 7th August 1890, submitting a petition from Subramaniya Somarazulu of the Bellary District, in which he prays for a refund of the assessment collected on his inam lands, I am directed to say that the Government of India will not interfere in behalf of the petitioner who may be informed accordingly.

2. With regard to the definition of the term "dispensatory discretion" in Section III, 3 (12) of the rules for the transmission of memorials to the Government of India, I am directed to invite a reference to paragraph 3 of Government of India Foreign Department letter No. 2757 I., dated 18th August 1890. noted on the margin, to the address of the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, in which the term has been explained. For the rule to apply there must be a discretion vested in the Local Government by a law or rule to waive or dispense with some qualification or condition, and the Local Government must have declined to waive such qualification or condition. The appeal too must be against such refusal only.

3. The accompaniments of the petition are returned.

No. 1263—1-55 R., dated 25th October 1890.

COPY, with copy of the letter replied to, forwarded to the Home Department for information.

Read Again the following letter to the Government of India, Revenue and Agricultural Department dated 27th November 1890 No 7309.

I am directed to enquire whether the word "admissible" in the last sentence of para 2 of your letter dated 3rd October 1890 No $\frac{1077}{1-55}$ R.
is not a clerical mistake for "inadmissible".

Read also the following letter from the Government of India, Revenue and Agricultural Department dated 30th January 1891 No $\frac{131}{15-3}$.

In acknowledging the receipt of your letter No 7309 dated 27th November last, I am directed to request that the accompanying letter may be substituted for the one bearing
the
