To the Honorable J. H. Garstin Esq. C. S. J. of + + +

Most honored Sir - I most respectfully beg to state, for the very last time, that the last letter I submitted to Your honorable regarding the date of my petition to the Secretary of State, I did so in great haste, lest I should incur displeasure for being late; and this present one also I wrote after much hesitation for fear of intrusion; but as my last letter was more or less condensed in my haste to dispatch it in due time, I thought best to submit this clearer & verbatim version of it which I have now ventured to do for the very last time which is as follows with the full heading of the said dispatch as seen on the pages following; with most

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf from an old book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some minor creases and discoloration, characteristic of old paper. In the upper left corner, there are faint, illegible markings that appear to be handwritten or stamped, possibly indicating a date or a page number. The overall tone of the page is a warm, off-white or light beige.
